

Let our choirs new anthems raise

S:t John Damascene/J.M Neal 1818-66

Miguel Robaina

Vivace

1. Let our choirs new an - thems raise,
When God turned to joy and praise
2. Now death they stand tor - be fore the throne
3. Let us then due hon - our to pay, for the saints in whom to - day bright the morn with glad - ness, all his ser - vants' glad - ness:

clothed in robes of splen - dour, praise to God they ren - der;
as we raise our voi - ces, all the Church re - joi - ces;

This the day that won their crown, ope - ned Praise a - like to Christ their King. From their Let God's peo - ple here be - low still re - heav'n's wide por - tal; They, mor - tal - i - lips is sound - ing, as they a - do - count their sto - ry, how they fought a - ty laid down, ent - ered life im - mor - tal. ra - tion bring for his grace a - bound - ing. gainst the foe for the Sa - viour's glo - ry.